Bullying Prevention and Intervention Plan

Promoting Healthy Relationships within Positive School Climates

Clara Hughes Public School

OUR SCHOOL COMMITMENT

We are committed to establishing and supporting learning and working environments that are safe, welcoming, respectful, equitable, accessible, inclusive and free from discrimination, oppression and harm. Indigenous inherent rights, human rights and equity are at the center of our work. This fundamental commitment to human rights begins with meaningful investment in a Positive School Climate.

A Positive School Climate:

- Ensures that everyone is treated with dignity and respect;
- Expects, welcomes and includes everyone;
- Values, affirms and supports the expression of diverse identities;
- Promotes, protects and upholds Indigenous inherent rights and human rights – including students' right to education without discrimination and employees' right to employment without discrimination;
- Centres the rights of the child/student in ways that are not discriminatory and that do not cause or perpetuate harm;
- Prioritizes relationships, well-being and equity through a Whole School Approach.

While we work proactively to promote positive and respectful interactions, we will also address any behaviour or interaction that is likely to have a negative impact on the school climate, including bullying, discrimination and other forms of harmful interaction. In planning our responses, we will consider and provide support for all impacted staff and students, including those who were harmed, those who witnessed the harm, and those who caused harm.

We will promote a Positive School Climate in both proactive and responsive ways

MINISTRY STATEMENTS

“A positive school climate exists when all members of the school community feel safe, included, and accepted, and actively promote positive behaviours and interactions. Principles of equity and inclusive education are embedded in the learning environment to support a positive school climate and a culture of mutual respect. A positive school climate is a crucial component of bullying prevention.”

Taken from Ministry of Education of Ontario, PPM 145

“Bullying will not be accepted on school property, at school-related activities, on school buses, or in any other circumstances (e.g., online) where engaging in bullying will have a negative impact on the school climate.”

Taken from Ministry of Education of Ontario, PPM 144

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

Healthy Relationships are grounded in treating one another with dignity and respect.

Healthy Relationships provide:

- A sense of security and stability
- Basic needs
- A sense of being valued and belonging
- Support and guidance to learn essential skills and understanding
- Protection from excessive stress

All adults who are responsible for children play an important role in teaching them about healthy relationships and bullying. Teachers, parents/guardians, and other adults involved in children’s lives:

- Model relationship skills and attitudes
- Create positive situations in which children and youth interact.

Children will only learn positive relationship skills and attitudes if they observe and interact with adults who model positive relationships when interacting with children and adults.(PREVNet) Healthy Relationships are grounded in treating one another with dignity and respect.

HARMFUL INTERACTIONS

Bullying: Aggressive and typically repeated behaviour by a pupil where...

- (a) the behaviour is intended by the pupil to have the effect of, or the pupil ought to know that the behaviour would be likely to have the effect of,
 - i. causing harm, fear or distress to another individual, including physical, psychological, social or academic harm, harm to the individual’s reputation or harm to the individual’s property, or
 - ii. creating a negative environment at a school for another individual, and

- (b) the behaviour occurs in a context where there is a real or perceived power imbalance between the pupil and the individual based on factors such as ancestry, size, strength, age, intelligence, peer group power (e.g., popularity), economic status, social status, religion, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, family circumstances, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, disability or the receipt of special education

For the purposes of the definition of “bullying”, behaviour includes the use of any physical, verbal, electronic, written or other means.

Aggression: A response to conflict, threat or an internal emotional state of anger/irritability in which the intent to harm may or may not be present.
Aggression...

- (a) can take direct or indirect forms, including physical, verbal, social and electronic
- (b) can become bullying when a power imbalance in a relationship develops over time because repeated acts of aggression may intimidate the person on the receiving end

Teasing: A type of “playful” interaction that can range from positive (e.g., bantering, joshing, ribbing) to negative (e.g., mocking, pestering, tormenting)

- (a) Positive teasing takes place within a healthy relationship. It is good natured, fun and reciprocal
- (b) Negative teasing is characterized by words or actions that cause harm on one or both sides of the interaction. Negative teasing harms relationships as well as the school climate

Slurs and personal insults: The use of discriminatory, targeted or hateful language that is focused on Human Rights Code grounds, a person’s identity or personal characteristics is never acceptable, whether this language is used in the context of bullying, conflict, teasing or aggression. These include:

- (a) Slurs and phrases that dehumanize, mock, ostracize, discriminate against or victimize others based on race, Indigenous identity, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, religion, ethnicity, neurodivergent traits, ability, financial status, family status, etc.
- (b) Personal insults that target traits like body type and other physical characteristics, “intelligence,” personality traits or personal interests

Conflict: A normal type of interaction that everyone should learn to navigate and resolve effectively. Conflict may be distinguished from other harmful interactions in that...

- (a) there is no power imbalance between those in conflict, or at least, the power imbalance is not being weaponized by the person with more power
- (b) all parties are typically invested in resolving the conflict (or at least ending it)
- (c) conflict most often occurs among people who share an existing relationship: classmates, siblings, friends, partners, colleagues, etc.
- (d) tensions underlying the conflict are not related to identity (e.g., ancestry, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion) and may be amplified by stressors for one or both parties in conflict
- (e) conflict typically centers on disagreement, personal errors, unclear or unmet expectations, or poor communication

Cyber-bullying: For the purposes of the definition of “bullying” seen here, bullying includes bullying by electronic means (commonly known as cyber-bullying), including,

- (a) creating a web page or a blog in which the creator assumes the identity of another person;
- (b) impersonating another person as the author of content or messages posted on the internet; and
- (c) communicating material electronically to more than one individual or posting material on a website that may be accessed by one or more individuals.

Strengths and Goals

What the Data Tells Us – School Climate and Well-being Surveys and Other Data

As part of the on-going monitoring and evaluation process, schools gather data from various sources, including school climate surveys of students, staff and parents/caregivers every two years. Our school data indicates the following:

Strengths (Results from School Climate and Student Well Being Survey 2022-2023)

- 64.9% feel like they belong
- 77.2% feelings of safety at school
- 76.4% of student have not been bullied
- 71.1% feel like their culture is represented

Based on the analysis of various sources of data, our school has identified specific bullying prevention and intervention goal statements for this school year. These goal statements will drive our actions for this year. Outcomes will be monitored and assessed using a continuous improvement cycle.

Goals:

- Making sure all students feel a sense of belonging and acceptance by their peers and staff
- Making sure students see themselves in the daily learning activities they participate in
- Continue to make sure students feel safe
- Implementing a trauma-informed approach to learning and community building

Proactive Approaches

What We are Doing in Our Classrooms and in Our School - Strategies that Promote a Positive School Climate

Our school is implementing a variety of strategies to support student well-being, affirm and promote diverse identities, and create a welcoming environment. These strategies involve students, staff, parents and community members as part of a whole school approach. Below are highlights of our strategies:

- First 20 days of well-being promoted
- Wide variety of opportunities for co-curricular clubs and activities promoted
- Staff positivity and building relationships with students
- WITS Program
- Continue to have Social Emotional Learning as a part of classrooms lead by SERTS and classroom teachers
- Continue to Focus on Character Education
- Student leadership program for grades 6 through 8
- Presence of Calming Corners within the classrooms to support students well being

How Student Voice is Present in Our School

Engaging students to help shape the learning environment is an important component of a whole school approach in promoting a positive school climate – a climate in which each and every student feels that they matter. The following examples are highlights of student voice in action at our school:

Our school has an active student population. There are many opportunities for students to be part of the Student Leadership Program. Students have the opportunity to be student leaders on various initiatives, teams, participate in assemblies, and various other activities. Our school has also focused on Universal Design for Learning, honouring identities and intersectionalities, and implementing a trauma-informed approach to learning to foster a culture of caring and community.

How do we create the conditions whereby students feel safe to report bullying and other harmful interactions at school?

Creating the conditions within which students may feel safe to report begins with investment in relationships and the promotion of a Positive School Climate. Additionally, procedures may be put in place that facilitate students and parent/caregiver reporting as well as procedures that outline the requirements for staff to report such instances in accordance with legislation.

Student Reporting:

- Reporting bullying or other harmful interactions to a trusted adult (e.g., parent/caregiver, teacher, administrator, support staff, police liaison officer).
- Using the “Report Bullying Now” button on the school/board website provides students a more discreet means of reporting bullying behaviours.

Staff Reporting:

- “The Education Act states that an employee of the board who becomes aware that a student at the school of the board may have engaged in a serious student incident shall report the matter to the principal as soon as reasonably possible” (PPM 144)
- When appropriate staff complete and submit the “Safe Schools Incident Reporting Form – Part I” to the principal. The principal provides written acknowledgement to the employee using the “Safe Schools Incident Reporting Form – Part II” (PPM 144)

Parent/Community Reporting:

- Reporting bullying and other harmful interactions to the classroom teacher, and/or administration.
- Using the “Report Bullying Now” button on the school website

Strategies that help students to feel safe to report (e.g., relationship-building strategies, reporting mechanisms, awareness-building)

- All staff build relationships with students daily through positive interactions and being visible in hallways and on the yard
- Regular check ins with students
- Students are encouraged to report harmful interactions to staff and administration
- Restorative Practices are used
- Community Circles are used in Classrooms

How We Are Building Capacity for Promoting Healthy Relationships as Part of a Positive School Climate at Our School.

Training/learning opportunities occur at the board level, community level and school level. Here are highlights of our training/learning opportunities:

Students:

- Social Emotional Learning Skills explicitly taught, including the use of resources developed by the Well-being Youth Workers
- WITS incentive Program
- Student Leadership team working throughout the school
- Character Education focus each month introduced at assemblies and highlighted daily on morning announcements and in classrooms

Staff:

Staff professional development during all staff meetings. Staff meeting action items and ensuring all staff are involved in creating and maintaining a bully free school environment.

- on-going training in the areas of Universal Design for Learning, Indigenous Education, and trauma-informed practices
- embedding culturally responsive and relevant learning opportunities into daily instruction

Parents/caregivers:

Will continue to promote partnerships with caregivers to foster a positive and caring environment with a focus on collaboration, caring, and connection.

- Regular Communication through School Messenger
- SCC Meetings

Responsive Approaches

How We Respond to Bullying and other harmful interactions at Our School

Our school response follows a bias-aware approach to progressive discipline that involves the following immediate and long-term actions:

- Implementing a trauma-informed and sensitive approach to all activities
- Ensuring the safety of all involved
- Responding to any student behaviour that is likely to have a negative impact on the school climate
- Conducting a school-based investigation (consulting the Police/Board Protocol, when necessary and appropriate) considering mitigating, human rights and other factors
- Contacting the parents/caregivers of the person(s) who has been harmed and the parents/caregivers of the person(s) who has caused harm, in accordance with legislation
- Considering the broader context and implications of the harmful interaction (e.g., racism, homophobia, transphobia, biphobia, Islamophobia, antisemitism, faithism, classism, ableism, misogyny) in order to inform both immediate and long-term responses
- Developing an action plan that is responsive and supportive
- Taking concrete steps to repair relationship and restore a Positive School Climate
- Considering individual, class, and/or whole-school learning opportunities to foster the conditions wherein similar situations may be prevented in the future, e.g.,
- Consulting and collaborating with community partners, affinity groups and DDSB departments, as appropriate (e.g., DBEN, DENSA, KIEN, MEND, Equity, ISS, Indigenous Education, Positive School Climates)
- Implementing a Positive School Climates Student Safety Plan, when necessary
- Implementing/reviewing a Special Education Behaviour Safety Plan, when appropriate

How We Provide Ongoing Support to Those Impacted by Bullying at Our School

Support for the person(s) who has been harmed, the person(s) who has caused harm and the person(s) who has witnessed harm may include:

- Furthering school-level support such as connection to a caring adult, classroom and yard considerations, special needs considerations, participation in co-curricular programming
- Implementing board-level supports such as social work, child and youth workers or psychological services (with consent)
- Identifying community support resources
- Implementing an escalation continuum and Student Safety Plan when necessary

Follow-up for the person(s) who has been harmed, the person(s) who has caused harm and the person(s) who has witnessed harm will include:

- Individual monitoring based on specific needs (e.g., regular check-ins)
- Conversations or learning opportunities as needed to support self-awareness, understanding of impact, social-emotional learning skills, and/or to inspire a shift in ideological trajectory if needed, e.g., in cases where ignorance, hate or discrimination are at play

Communication

How We are Communicating with Students, Staff, Parents/Caregivers and the Community

To support a whole school approach, the school will communicate with staff, students, parents/caregivers and the community. Communication methods include:

Learning Activities within instructional time, Bulletin Boards, Emails, School Messenger, Social Media Posts, Classroom Apps such as REMIND, Talking Points etc.

Continuous Improvement

As part of the continuous improvement model, the Bullying Prevention and Intervention Plan will be monitored regularly through:

- Staff meetings, leadership team meetings, division meetings, committee meetings
- School Learning Planning
